PROGRAMME - THREEPENCE

(With thanks to Mitre Sports through Lionel Darlows for to-day's match ball presentation)

MEET THE ENGLAND TEAM—

S. DEATH (West Suffolk). Goalkeeper. Fearless, with good anticipation, and excellent command of his area.

G. PEAPER (Oxford). Right-back. A strong forceful player, with a good positional sense. Capped v. Eire and Scotland (twice).

A. STYLES (Liverpool). Left-back. A boy who combines excellent defensive play with intelligent distribution. Reads the trend of play well and makes many useful interceptions through anticipating the attacker's next move. A clean kicker. Is equally useful as a winger and can float across a very good centre. Capped v. Eire and Scotland (twice).

B. CHAMBERS (Newcastle). Right-half. A powerful, thoughtful player, fast in attack and defence, so providing the ideal midfield link. Capped v. Eire and Scotland (twice).

P. WENT (East London). Centre-half. A strong defender, very cool under pressure. A most difficult player to pass.

K. NEWMAN (Aldershot). Left-half. A strong attacking wing-half who combines excellent ball control with good distribution. Capped v. Eire and Scotland (twice).

P. JONES (Ellesmere Port). Outside-right. Competent, tenacious player with all-round ability. New Cap.

A. EVANS (Mid-Worcester). Inside-right. An outstanding ball player. His technique stamps him as a player with a great future. Capped v. Eire and Scotland (twice).

P. SHOEMARK (Wellingborough). Centre-forward. A very fast mover. A strong shot with either foot. Leads his attack in lively fashion. Capped v. Eire and Scotland (twice).

J. STENSON (Blackheath). Inside-left. A very powerful player, with excellent ball control. Regularly gets his name on the score sheet. Note this name for the future. Capped v. Eire and Scotland (twice).

A. WHITTLE (Liverpool). Outside-left. An excellent ball player who is capable of splitting any defence. Has contributed a great deal to the success of the present Liverpool Team. Capped v. Scotland.

NOW MEET THE WELSH—

RAYMOND LARGE (Wrexham). Goalkeeper. A safe pair of hands; also plays rugby; would like to become a P.T. teacher.

A. BLACKMORE (Swansea). Right-back; sound positional sense and anticipates well.

SELWYN EVANS (Cardiff). Left-back. Can kick equally well with both feet, and all his work in the field is clean-cut, precise and definite.

H. GRAVELLE (Swansea). Right-half. The strong man in the Swansea half-back line; scores an occasional goal.

T. DANIELS (Swansea). Centre-half. Good in the air; distributes the ball well, a utility player who has played in many positions.

ALAN SMITH (Newport). Left-half. A very clever ball playing wing-half; capable of sound tackling, and kicking equally well with either foot.

TERRY YORATH (Cardiff). Right-wing. Has a powerful shot, having scored 13 goals this season for Cardiff boys. Hopes to become a professional player.

DAVID FOULKES (Wrexham). Inside-right. Has a good shot; quick to seize an opportunity to score; keen on athletics.

A. JONES (Wrexham). Centre-forward. Hard working, strong in attack.

BRENDAN BLAIR (Cardiff). Outside-left. His artistry is a delight to the eye; very quick to spot the opposing team's weaknesses and strengths. Grandson of Jimmy Blair.
